

KATIE BONIN

Katie Bonin is the Lead Secretary to the Senate Committee on Transportation and Housing, chaired by Senator Jim Beall (D-San Jose). Ms. Bonin is primarily responsible for the daily functioning of the committee and ensures all committee consultants are meeting constitutional and statutory deadlines, as well as any additional Senate or Joint Legislative rules. She is also the public face of the Committee, and the youngest lead committee secretary in the California State Senate. She facilitates Committee hearings and is responsible for ensuring 13 Senators meet parliamentary procedural requirements for action on legislative bills. No document may be made public until Ms. Bonin carefully reviews and edits them.

Before joining the committee staff in September 2016, Ms. Bonin was an Office Administrator and Scheduler to Senator Fran Pavley (D-Calabasas). Prior to that, she worked in the Accounting Department of Sodexo Inc.

Ms. Bonin earned her bachelor's degree in Psychology and Business Writing from the University of Idaho.
